Fraud risk

Risks requiring special attention	Response	Significant risk	Conclusion	Partner comment
Management override of controls: Management is in a unique position to perpetrate fraud by overriding controls (ISA240.31).	- Gain an understanding of the controls surrounding journal entries, including non-standard journal entries used to record non-recurring, unusual transactions or adjustments. Refer to 11.50. - Test the appropriateness of journal entries recorded in the general ledger and other adjustments made in preparation of the financial statements. Refer to 16.10 - Based on your fraud risk assessment, consider the need to test additional journals throughout the period and/or journals and adjustments with specific characteristics. (Take into account that material, significant and unusual year-end adjustments and other non-standard journals are tested in each section.) No response required.	☑
